Note: Public disclosure of an invention is a bar to the filing of a patent application for that invention in most foreign countries. The deadline for filing a counterpart patent application in a foreign country is 12 months from the first filed patent application, unless a PCT application is filed within 12 months of the first filed patent application, in which case the foreign application can be filed within 30 months of the first filed application.

Registered Trademarks (US trademarks, and/or international trademarks filed under the Madrid Protocol)

Docket No.	Title	Client	Serial No./Registration No.	Country	Filing Date	Status/Action Item

Confidential and Attorney-Client Privileged

Note: If the mark is not in use in interstate commerce, an application for the mark can be filed under an Intent To Use (section 1b filing). If the mark is filed under an Intent To Use, within 6 months of the issue date of the Notice Of Allowance of the mark, a Statement Of Use, or if the mark is not yet being used in commerce, A Request For Extension Of Time must be filed. If a Request For Extension is filed, a new Request For Extension must be filed every six months until the statement of use is filed. Applicant can file a total of five extension requests. Failure to file the required document during this period will result in abandonment of the application.

A registered trademark remains in effect as long as the following declarations are filed and maintenance fees paid: a Declaration Of Continued Use Under Section 8 or Excusable Non-Use is filed between the 5th and 6th year after the registration date of the mark with a fee of $100/class. A further 6 mo. filing grace period is allowed after the 6th year. Also, every 10 years after registration (between the 9th and 10th year, 19th and 20th year, etc.) a combined Declaration Of Continued Use or Excusable Non-Use under Section 8 With Application For Renewal Under Section 9 is filed with a renewal fee of $500/class. Also, a Declaration of Incontestability under Section 15 with a fee of $200 may be optionally filed between the 5th and 6th year after registration with the Section 8 filing, or the Declaration of Incontestability under Section 15 may be filed at any time after the 5th year if the mark has been in continuous use in interstate commerce for 5 years after registration with no known pending litigation against the mark in any State or Federal court, or before the Trademark Trial & Appeal Board (TTAB). Please note that trademark fees are subject to change by the USPTO
